5. (Confidential - GLC) After conferring with Mr. Colby, I called Chairman Nedzi and gave him a brief rundown on my visit with Senator Symington when I left with him Mr. Colby's memorandum. I told Nedzi that as I had alerted him this morning, Symington still seemed disposed to release the 28 June 1972 memorandum but I could not be at all certain of this at this time. Nedzi indicated that he was still relaxed about this, that he appreciated our keeping him informed on this matter but he still plans to make no public disclosure of any of this material at this time. He made it clear, however, that if Symington released all or part of this material he would have to reconsider his position in light of developments at that time.

6. (Confidential - GLC) Senator Birch Bayh (D., Ind.) called and said he would like to have somebody come up and give him a rundown on a confidential basis on what we knew about the SA-6. He said he had some rather strong reservations about the U.S. SAM-D program because he doubted that it was as effective as the SA-6 and he wanted some background information for discussions with Secretary of Defense Schlesinger on the subject. I told the Senator that until the recent outbreak in the Middle East we knew virtually nothing about the SA-6 but that I did not have the latest information on it. I told him I would check on this and see what we could do. He suggested that I contact his secretary, Lynne Mann, to arrange a mutually convenient time for a briefing.

7. (Unclassified - JGO) In response to his call, I called Arthur Kuhl, Chief Clerk, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and gave him the
